

Psychoanalysis, Culture & Society is the official publication of APCS, and is published quarterly by Palgrave.

It critically addresses the intersection between psychoanalysis and the social world, and explores the roles psychoanalysis might play in bringing about social justice and progressive social change.

The journal is of interest to scholars in media, cultural and literary studies as well as psychoanalysts with a focus on these issues.

Four issues per volume.
ISSN: 1088-0763
EISSN: 1543-3390
